There will be one session and the instructors will rotate, so everyone get to practice and receive training from every instructor.

The seminar is open to all practitioners ages 12 and older.

Saturday 2/12/2011, 11:00 AM – 3:00 PM & flat fee of $45.00 is required.

Leslie Safar - 9th DAN

AJKA-I Technical Director and Chief Instructor - Europe
Leslie Safar, AJKA-I co-founder, has practiced Shotokan karate since 1958. He is well known on both sides of the Atlantic for his mastery as an instructor, his intense focus on the core technical principles of Shotokan Karate, and the development of instructor training programs dedicated to building the total instructor. Sensei Safar tours the United States on a regular basis, but spends the majority of his time teaching, directing, and developing AJKA-I karate in Hungary, and throughout Europe.

Edmond Otis - 8th DAN

AJKA-I Chairman and Chief Instructor - North America
Edmond Otis has practiced Shotokan karate since 1967, and is internationally known as a competitor, instructor, coach, and judge. He is acclaimed for his innovative and dynamic teaching style, and is considered by many to be one of the premier karate instructors of his generation. Sensei Otis currently divides his time between the US and New Zealand, and travels extensively for the AJKA-I, conducting seminars that focus on all aspects of karate practice. He directs the West Coast AJKA-I Instructor Training Program.

John Hanratty - 7th Dan

AJKA-I Chairman of North American Technical Committee, Chief Instructor and President - Canadian Shotokan Karate Association, President for WSKA
John Hanratty has been training and teaching Shotokan Karate for over 38 years. Originally from the KUGB and the Red Triangle Dojo in England, he has devoted his energies to developing Shotokan in Canada and throughout North America. Sensei Hanratty is renowned for his motivational skills, communication and teaching methods, plus an in-depth knowledge of Karate history, application and technique.
